Ved His Enemy to Ants.

A story of terrible revenge taken by Herbert L. Brummer, a Russian American, on his rival in love, comes from HAYFEVER DE SOLUTION OF THE SO to the daughter of General Santagua. The dashing youth roused the jealousy of Col. Perlotte, one of the young wo man's admirers, and a bitter hatred sprung up.

A desperate hand-to-hand encounter was the prelude and Perlotte was de-cidedly worsted. Several days after-ward Perlotte, with a band of soldiers, kidnapped Brummer and put him bound in a cave. Only the betrayal of Per-lotte by one of his troopers saved Brummer from dying a lingering death.

Every one expected that Brummer would shoot Perlotte on sight, but he did nothing, biding his time.
One right, while going his rounds, Perlotte, was suddenly seized, bound and thrown into a cart driven by Brammer. He was then taken into a section of the country infested with fierce black ants, which build large rounds.

"I am going to stake you down and let the "1 am going to stake you down and ret mants ent you," said Brunmer, as he cut the cords on Perlotte's legs. Four stout stakes were taken from the wagon and driven into the ground around one of the largest anthills, and then the colonel was stripped to the Perlotte screamed, cursed and prayed, but all in vain. The peons dragged him to the takes and kicked the ant-hill to pieces. In an instant the writhing victim was covered with the terrible ants and was being literally ateu alive.

Brummer remained long enough to make sure that his enemy was dead, and then, leap-ing on his horse, he made his way to the coast and escaped to New York on a sailing

AIRTIGHT STEAMSHIPS .- Au English mechanical genius has devised a method of indicating and stopping a leak by the use of compressed air. He divides a ship into airtight compartments fitted with doors provided with packing material and connected by tubes with a room on deck called the "switch-room." In this room is a junctionchest supplied with compressed air from fixed or portable compressors, and so arranged that the air can be de livered to any of the compartments. Other tubes lead from the compartment from which water can be forced out when required, and electric indica-tors are also connected with the switch room to indicate the accumulation of water in any of the compartments Should the vessel "spring a leak" the indicator will show which compartment is affected, so that the compress ed air may be forced in to drive water out. The invention also includes the means for indicating the position of a sunken ship, this being accom-plished by means of a buoy connected to a coiled rope. To refloat the vessel a diver can descend and connect the junction chest with the various compartments, so that by supplying compressed air the water will be ejected and the vessel floated. Other

the same, and also for ventilating the

A prominent man in town exclaimed the other day: "My wife has been wearing out her life from the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion. Her case baffled the skill of our best physicians. After using three packages of Eacon's Celery Cure she is almost entirely well." Keep your blood in a healthy condition by the use of this great vegetable compound. Call on E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, sole agents, and get a trial package free. Large size 50c. The Trouble Over.

The proprietors of Ely's Cream Balm do not claim it to be a cure-all, but a remedy for catarrh, colds in the head and hay fever. It is not a liquid or a snuff, is easily applied into is not a liquid or a snuff, is easily applied min the nostrils. It gives relief at once. 50c.

I HAD catarrh of the head and throat for five years. I used Ely's cream Balm, and from the first application I was relieved. The sense of smell, which had been lost, was re-stored after using one bottle. I have found the Balm the only satisfactory remedy for ca-tarrh, and it has effected a cure in my case.— H. L. Collector's Office, June 21, 1893. Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1893 are now in the hands of the collectors. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1893, the Collectors of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent., and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 18:3, they shall allow a discount of five per cent., and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1893, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1894, damages at the rate of six percentum per annum shall be paid." Tax payers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

What did we tell you last week? We told you the sale of the century was upon you. But, gracious goodness, how much greater and grander than we had any idea of! Why should Whshington overwhelm our grand city? We are determined in our efforts to maintain home patronage. We, the originators and leaders of low prices, have shown to the people that the mercantile pursuits of Alexandria are not so slow as they are made out to be. We are doing an immense business; not making any money; but causing a steady boom in trade. Next week we promise a GRAND CARNIVAL OF PRICES. Throughout our entire stock every piece of merchandise will be rehandled and the lowest cut price put on it. Activity and bustle in trade is what we must maintain. This Monday, the beginning of the third week of the Grand Forced Sale, promises to be banner week. Additional seasonable merchandise has been added to the list and at prices that will astonish you.

Sale opens Monday, at 8 a. m., and we respectfully ask our patrons to shop early in the morning, as the large crowds which gather in our store later does not afford us time to give you the proper attention we desire you to have.

Store closes at 6:30 o'clock Saturdays excepted.

Terms of Sale—Strictly Cash. Out of town orders promptly attended to.
